Andy Littman has more than 25 years successful trial experience dealing with divorce, probate, business, real estate and personal injury. Andy's commitment to clients starts with fully understanding their goals and passionately advocating their cause. He has a proven ability to accurately assess a range of potential outcomes and takes a strategic approach to customize every case.

Andy's most notable victories are Colorado Supreme Court and Court of Appeals cases that involved family law and personal injury, which established new legal precedent. In addition, he has won a number of substantial trial-court victories in multi-million-dollar-cases.
