Jonathan Leinhardt brings fifteen years of compassionate, diverse experience to the practice of law. Formerly an Assistant District Attorney in New York City (Queens County), Jonathan's practice has focused primarily on criminal defense of various misdemeanors and felonies, from pre-charge investigation through trial and appeal. In addition, Jonathan specializes in various aspects of probate law (estate planning, administration, and litigation), with a special emphasis on conservatorships and guardianships, having frequently served in the role of Court-appointed counsel of incapacitated persons. Jonathan also practices in all areas of family law, including divorce, property division, allocation of parental responsibilities (decision-making and parenting time), child support, and maintenance (spousal support).
